

These two texts contain all of the fundamental concepts discussed in typical college level Principles of Macroeconomics and Principles of Microeconomics courses.

In addition to clearly written text, there are 235 verbal explanations (audio and scripted captions), many Internet links, a few interactive graphs and formulas, and end-of-unit games to test your knowledge of the material. In the Resources section there are... [read more]

Most text books have become so expensive that it is pushing student loan amounts to excessive levels, and in some cases it is preventing students from enrolling in college all together. Our goal is to inflate your mind and not prices. To fight price inflation and to make learning more affordable, we are happy to offer you these texts at no charge.

If you have the means, and if you would like to show your appreciation for these free texts, please consider donating (even a very small amount) by clicking on the "Donate" link in the top right corner of this page. All proceeds will go to the HCC Educational Foundation in order to help students pay for text books in other courses.

If you are a business owner or manager and would like to support these free texts, please consider making a tax deductible donation by clicking on the "Donate" button. If you would like to become an official sponsor and would like us to mention your business and product(s) on one or more of our pages (viewed each year by thousands of students in the United States and around the world), please contact John Bouman at jbouman@howardcc.edu , or call 443-518-4873. Thank you.
